2021-2022 Title I School-Level Parental Involvement Policy

Coral Mountain Academy has developed a written Title I parental involvement policy with input from Title I parents.

It gathered and disseminated to parents for review the following materials: District wide Parental Involvement Policy, the School's Parental Involvement Policy, the school-parent compact, and Parent Notices from the Table on page 45 of the Title 1, Part A Non-Regulatory Guidance. These materials were disseminated to parents at regular Title 1 parent meetings, School Site Council meetings and parent/teacher conferences. Written and oral input from parents was solicited through Title 1 parent meetings, School Site Council meetings, parent/teacher conferences, school newsletters, and other regular written communications with parents.

Coral Mountain Academy will take the following actions to distribute to parents of participating children and the local community the Parental Involvement Policy. [Title I Parental Involvement, 20 USC 6318(a)-(f)]

- Present policy to parents during the yearly Title 1 meeting.
- Personally, distribute during parent conferences by the classroom teacher and set up a centrally located table to answer questions parents may have.
- Parents of new participating students will receive the policy upon registration if eligible for Title 1.
- Policy will be available on school's website.

Involvement of Parents in the Title I Program

Coral Mountain Academy convenes an annual meeting to inform parents of Title 1 students of Title 1 requirements and their rights to be involved in the Title 1 program.

- Parents are notified of the Title 1 requirements and their rights to be involved in the Title 1 program during its annual Title 1 presentation in September. A presentation outlining the Title 1 requirements and parent rights was given in both English and Spanish.

Coral Mountain Academy offers a flexible number of meetings.

- Meetings will be held at various and convenient times to encourage parents to attend. Parents will be notified about meetings through school memos, calendars, and the automated phone system. The meetings will be held in the mornings and evenings and offered in both English and Spanish.

Coral Mountain Academy involves parents of Title I students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review*, and improvement of its Title I programs and the Title I parental involvement policy.**

- School Site Council meetings
- Regular Title 1 meetings
- Parent/teacher conferences

- Through School Site Council meetings.

School-Parent Compact

Coral Mountain Academy has jointly developed with and distributed to parents of Title I students a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. It also describes how the school and parents will develop a partnership to help children reach proficiency on the California content standards. The school-parent compact describes the following items in addition to items added by parents of Title I students:

- The school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction.
- The parents' responsibility to support their children's learning.
- The importance of ongoing communication between parents and teachers through, at least, annual conferences, reports on student progress, access to staff, and opportunities to volunteer and participate in and observe the educational program.

It gathered and disseminated to parents for review the following materials: District wide Parental Involvement Policy, the School's Parental Involvement Policy, and Parent Notices from the Table on page 45 of the Title 1, Part A Non-Regulatory Guidance. These materials were disseminated to parents at regular Title 1 parent meetings, School Site Council meetings, and parent/teacher conferences. Written and oral input from parents was solicited through Title 1 parent meetings, School Site Council meetings, parent/teacher conferences, and other regular written communications with parents.

DUE to COVID-19: In-person activities, meetings, & workshops will be postponed or carried out via Zoom. Required document distribution will be via Facebook and Coral Mountain Academy Website.

The school-parent compact is provided to parents during the first parent-teacher conference. The compact is an active document that is referenced throughout the year to support responsibilities with academics, behavior, and overall positive development for all parties involved.
